

Home

Moroccan Maison

JERRY RABINOWITZ

For this Singer Island condominium, Sean Rush of Sean Rush Atelier married Moroccan influences with an ocean view. “With a minimalistic yet global viewpoint, my vision was to create a modern Moroccan beach condo using organic materials and unique finds from my annual trips to Morocco,” Rush says. “I wanted it to be embellished with exotic textiles but in a restrained color palette to celebrate the view of the ocean.” In the bedroom, Rush accented ceramic bleached wood plank tile detailing on the walls and floor with a lush carpet from ABC Carpet and Home. The bed is dressed in an antique Moroccan wedding blanket and vintage embroidered Moroccan pillows, all from Sean Rush Atelier. Rush created many of the custom details throughout the home, including the oil-on-canvas artwork, titled Sole, as well as the dyed velvet ikat pillows seen in the living room. Sean Rush Atelier, West Palm Beach (561-797-3700, seanrush.com)

